Kuala Langat pay heavy price

KUALA Langat have been thrown out of the Junior Hockey League for failing to show up for two matches.

The Selangor side failed to turn up for a rain-postponed tie against Kuala Lumpur Sports School and then against Politeknik KPT.

The Malaysian Hockey Confederation competitions committee decidated to erase Kuala Langat's previous match results from Division Two, Group B, and referred them to the disciplinary board.

Meanwhile, the Division Two semi-finals between Kelantan and Politeknik and Kuala Lumpur Sports School and Anderson Juniors will be held on Feb 15, while the final will be on Feb 17.

The finalists from Division Two will then move up to the Overall title home-and-away quarter-finals on Feb 22 and waiting for them from Division One are league champions Tengku Mahkota Ismail Sports School, Petaling Jaya City Council, UniKL Young Guns, Andersons, SSTMI Juniors and Malacca High School.
